

The Bunker Hill Approach

Introducing Bunker Hill Hospitality Consulting, a Boston-based, boutique consulting and investment firm specializing in the hospitality industry for both commercial and non-commercial clients. Built on a foundation of successful executive experience, creative innovation and comprehensive industry knowledge, clients consistently see exceptional results in the marketplace and on their bottom line.

Organization

Founded in 2004 as Michael P. Berry Consulting and Investments, Bunker Hill Hospitality Consulting is a Boston-based, boutique consulting and investment firm specializing in the hospitality industry for a highly diversified base of world-class commercial and non-commercial clients. The firm is dedicated to delivering industry-leading services and solutions to meet the dynamic business needs and situations that face business today and in the future.

Background

Clients benefit from the effective blend of executive experience leading three hallmark brands coupled with comprehensive and seasoned industry knowledge. Bunker Hill has been privileged to take on such challenges with innovative and industry-leading brands thereby offering a unique and effective application of their expansive skill set and expertise to each brand.

Services

Bunker Hill Hospitality Consulting provides services in 4 Main Areas:

- Brand Development, Strategy, and Execution
- Operational Planning and Analysis
- Program Design and Development
- Concept-Specific Management/Oversight

Highlights

Bunker Hill Hospitality Consulting has worked with top national brands and companies such as Avero, Coca-Cola, Copeland's, Columbia, Stanford, and Georgetown Universities, Goldman Sachs, Revenue Management Solutions, and Guidepoint Global.

Mission/Vision

Bunker Hill Hospitality Consulting is committed to providing our clients with an exceptional work product through asking the right questions so that we may offer our honest thoughts and opinions.

Through searching for the truth, not for ourselves but for our clients, we are focused on delivering a world-class product and output designed to meet real business needs and situations.

Values

Our community based investment arm funds worthy people and charitable projects with limited but necessary seed money at below market rates to help them fulfill a dream. We have been fortunate in life, and find it rewarding to assist others, and in so doing, give back to our society.

Team

We only take on a limited number of clients that we are convinced we can deliver exceptional value to, and commit ourselves to providing them with the highest level of service by limiting our engagements.